DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 62-79, 81, 87 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mitchell (6370857).

As shown below in the marked up drawings for greater clarity:

In re claim 64, the hand grip has a first portion and the second hand grip has a second portion, said first and second portions substantially adjacent each other when the rake units are brought next to each other prior to being connected; and wherein said connecting means comprise a first connecting means on one of the and second portions comprising a resilient member that snaps onto and holds the other one of the and second portions when the picking rake is used for picking yard debris (see fig 2);

in re claim 65 & 67, the abutment means comprise a recessed portion disposed on a section of one of the rake handles, the recessed portion sized to snugly receive the inner and outer dimensions of said connecting means (as shown in the figure above & fig 1);

the first and second elongated members are lying on the first infinite plane; and wherein said connecting means comprise a third connecting means on one of the elongated members of the rake handles, wherein the third connecting means resiliently snaps onto and holds the other elongated member when the rake units are joined together for raking debris (cl. 73 & 76-77)

Allowabl Subject Matter

3. Claims 57-61, 80 are allowed.

4. Claims 82-86 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Art Unit: 3671

R sponse to R marks (Argum nts)

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 57-87 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
